

Partnership with AIA Miami is an investment that brings immediate rewards!

Partnership opportunities include introducing speakers at our Town Halls, quarterly new member events, premium recognition on our website and various e-blasts, discounted website & newsletter ads, as well as many more customized benefits. In addition, there are a variety of events with opportunities for networking, including:

ARCHtober is Celebrate Architecture & Design in October

This month-long series of activities was created to promote public awareness and appreciation of architecture and design within our community. Events include SEEK Miami Scavenger Hunt, tours of noteworthy buildings and our sensational Design Awards Gala.

Architects in the Making (AIM) Summer Camp

More than 75 children from throughout Miami-Dade County participate in the popular summer camp and may indeed be inspired to become tomorrow's architects. Pivoted to virtual in 2020, let's see what 2021 holds!!

Black Architects in the Making (BAM)

BAM brings the profession of architecture to the neighborhoods by holding workshops throughout the community.

Partnership offers, through AIA Miami publications, website, and events plus exposure and recognition throughout the year, allowing your company to make a focused advertising/marketing investment. Your message to this audience of architects, engineers, contractors, and business leaders will be directed at the people who require and recommend your products and services. A non-profit organization, AIA Miami is dedicated to enhancing the practice and product of architecture and a portion of chapter proceeds will benefit student scholarships and educational programs.

AIA Miami is committed to member-to-member business. Partners have ample opportunity to promote their company and products at numerous events, make new contacts, and develop professional relationships throughout the year. All Partners have the opportunity to serve on committees and task forces as well as network with architects at events be it virtual or in person.
